

An Experience Beyond Belief

HSHS Scholars

The HSHS Scholars program offers funding for nursing students with educational expenses with a maximum of $20,000. This funding is awarded to qualifying students attending an accredited nursing program.

Applicants should have an interest in working for an HSHS Illinois hospital upon graduation and passing boards.

HSHS invests in its nurses with a comprehensive benefits program, competitive salaries and career development opportunities. We also care about achieving work/life balance and believe our colleagues needs personal and family time to be well-rounded individuals who can best serve our patients.

Micah T.

HSHS Scholars program recipient

“Applying for the HSHS scholarship was the best thing I could have done for myself and my career path, and something I’d do time and time again. While nursing school is stressful enough in itself, I found peace in knowing I had financial help along the way, as well as already having lined up where I’d be working upon graduation.”
