

1954

Inspiration

Mary Utlaut, widow of Bond County Native Edward A. Utlaut, contacts H. Denny Donnell regarding a donation to build a hospital

1956

The Initial Steps

First Board of Directors Elected

1957

The Community Difference

First Hospital Auxiliary formed

1958

Construction Underway

Hospital groundbreaking, Mrs. Utlaut attends

1960

The Tradition Begins

Edward A. Utlaut Memorial Hospital Opens

1965

Early Growth

32-bed hospital edition completed to address growing patient demand

1969

Meeting Community Needs

Fair Oaks Nursing Home completed to address long-term healthcare needs of seniors

1974

New Growth and Expansion

Growth spurs 50-bed addition to Fair Oaks Nursing Home

1984

Growing Medical Staff

Utlaut Medical Center opens, to provide physicians with office space

1990

Supporting Progress

Hospital Auxiliary opens Thrift Shop; proceeds purchase medical equipment

1993

Breaking New Ground

Work begins on new Outpatient Clinic

1997

Serving the Community

Wellness Link Behavioral Health Services opens

1998

Partners in Care

Hospital and Bond County Board form Bond County Emergency Medical Services

2000

New Directions

Emerald Pointe independent senior living community opens

2004

Growing with the Community & A New Name

Largest expansion in hospital's history completed; name changes to Greenville Regional Hospital to reflect the organization's expanding role in regional healthcare

2013

Refinement of Services

Closure of Fair Oaks Nursing Home and Wellness Link

2015

HSHS Affiliation

Greenville Regional Hospital announces the Board of Directors have signed a Letter of Intent to affiliate with Hospital Sisters Health Systems