[TRANSFORMATIVE, CHRIST-CENTERED EDUCATION]

ABOUT GREENVILLE UNIVERSITY

Greenville University was founded in 1892 by the Free Methodist Church with the intent to provide a distinctive, Christ-centered university education for men and women. Today, we continue that mission by empowering students for lives of character and service through a transformative education. A GU education develops the whole person so that our students thrive intellectually, emotionally, and spiritually.

Greenville University offers a variety of flexible, affordable online degrees at the undergraduate and graduate levels. These programs are designed for working professionals and delivered in a convenient format that prioritizes personal attention and academic excellence. We are proud to provide competitive tuition, experienced faculty, and a meaningful online educational experience for our students.

WHY CHOOSE GREENVILLE?

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE. We deliver an integrated learning experience with a holistic approach that builds character, expands perspectives, and develops global awareness.

CHRIST-CENTERED EDUCATION. Our faith informs everything we do. We empower our students to make an impact as responsible citizens with unique gifts and strong character.

AFFORDABILITY. We are proud to offer competitive tuition and were named among the Top 10 Online Colleges in Illinois for 2021 by Affordable Colleges Online.

FLEXIBILITY AND SUPPORT. GU programs are designed for working professionals and delivered in a convenient format with personal support from our experienced faculty.
